Curriculum WOW Day – What a Day!

What a fantastic day we enjoyed on Thursday for our exciting, fun-filled Curriculum WOW Day. It was wonderful to open the school to all our families and spend the day exploring incredible inventors and inventions together. The school was buzzing with curiosity, creativity and discovery from start to finish. Families journeyed through time with us as we uncovered amazing breakthroughs that changed the world. We took to the skies with Mrs Felgate to learn about the Wright Brothers and the first successful aeroplane flight. With Mrs Wade, we discovered how Alexander Graham Bell transformed communication forever with the invention of the telephone. Mr Addison blasted us into space science with Robert Goddard and his pioneering liquid-fuel rocket.

Attendance Heroes

Well done to our attendance Heroes this week!

Class	Attendance	Class	Attendance

We also explored how Johannes Gutenberg revolutionised reading and learning through the invention of the printing press with Mrs Tuttlebee, and zoomed forward with Karl Benz and the creation of the very first car with Mrs Plummer. Mrs Goater introduced us to Lu Ban, whose ingenious ideas paved the way for the invention of the umbrella. And to top it all off, Mrs Pinder wowed everyone with Leonardo da Vinci's imaginative design for the first parachute.

It was such a joy to see families and children working side by side – experimenting, designing, building, questioning and discovering. Throughout the day, families earned points for the children's house teams, adding a wonderful spirit of friendly competition. Some of our older family members even went home proudly wearing stickers and clutching certificates of their own!

What a brilliant day of learning and laughter. Thank you so much for being part of it.

The second page of this newsletter is packed with fantastic photographs capturing the energy, excitement and creativity of the day. We hope you enjoy looking through them as much as we enjoyed sharing the day with you.
