U11 Boys' Futsal Competition

Our U11 Boys' Futsal team had a fantastic day at Ipswich Hockey Club on Wednesday. A huge well done to Jesse, Freddie, Toby, Jack P, Oscar C, Franklin and Ruben, who represented our school with pride and enthusiasm. Despite the blistering heat, the boys showed incredible determination, teamwork and resilience throughout the competition. They played six exciting matches against strong opposition, never giving up and always giving their very best. We are extremely proud of their excellent sportsmanship, positive attitude and the way they supported one another. Congratulations, boys, on being such brilliant ambassadors for our school.

Team 1's Fantastic Assembly

On Wednesday, we were treated to a wonderful assembly by Team 1, who proudly shared all the exciting learning they have been doing in class. We heard about Christian Baptism in RE, continents and oceans in Geography, money in Maths, tennis in PE and David Attenborough in History. The children also demonstrated a phonics lesson and sang Reach for the Stars beautifully. Wow - it was a fantastic showcase of learning, enjoyed by parents and pupils alike.
